I've been here a few times now and they exceed my expectations every time! The food is incredible along with the coffee and the service is fantastic. I can tell the owner is passionate about his business and the experience of his customers. Very intimate atmosphere with homey decorations and dining. This gem is a favorite of mine and

I'll definitely be coming back! read more. What Beth Johnson doesn't like about Caffé Torino:

I've eaten here several times and the food is decent. But there is a sign on the door slandering employees, something about not being able to hire dependable employees— which makes you sound like a jackass of an employer. I will hesitate before eating here again simply because of your ridiculous signage. I recommend taking the sign down and treating employees better. read more.
