1st time visiting since the move to the new location! The ambiance is still really nice. Great for date night. Our appetizers were really good (Spring rolls chicken satay). However our silverware was dirty and our rice was a bit greasy. The food just didn't taste the same as it did on my previous visits. Maybe it was an off night. I will give it another try due to the service still being top tier. What Mr Gibbor doesn't like about Bangkok Alley:

Very good, took off two stars for food being warm not hot. Good flavor but they could have done better. Seemed like something left over from a lunch time fix ahead item. read more. The guests love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity. That's exactly what you can expect at the Bangkok Alley from Germantown, with its creative Asian fusion cuisine - the right mix of traditional meets the adventurous world of fusion cuisine, On the menu there are also several Asian dishes. If you're the type for more exotic menus, then try the Thai menus, among the delicacies of this place are especially the Maki and Sashimi.
