I give these five stars, but there is a cave, it was quite slow service when they are in a hurry, this could not be the place for them, but if they have the time to spend, it is worth it. the Guinness draft was fresh, the prices were nice, the Boxy dishes we ordered were extremely tasty, a braided bark, a cured bark and cauliflower. We were here on Saturday afternoon, and both of us were very happy and full. read more. What User doesn't like about this place is a further scream of mainstreeters. we were now twice at a Friday night, and when we are used to, just hopping, it was depressing dead. no energy, and the place just feels empty. it is obvious that the new peculiarities have no interest in keeping this place as alive as it was. tonight, they were made of lonely wings and all-things of bark. a big disappointment and probably will be our last time. sad to...

Paddy's Pub And Boxy House:
