My boyfriend and I found out about this cute little spot through Groupon. $40 worth and all I paid was $23? Heck ya. Our plan was to play food critic for a bit with ourselves at the table. We bought 6 different items and drank water because...you know... Saturday nights cause for lots of h2o the next day. Ordered the fried yucca, 3 mini empanadas (one of each) and the cheese was my absolute favorite. We also ordered the... read more. What

Jasmine Rodriguez doesn't like about Nico's Arepas Grill:

The only item that I'd tried was a beef arepa. The arepa itself was extremely thick, taking the translation of arepa, "corn cake" a bit to literally. The meat filling was okay, nothing special though nothing to talk poorly about. You could tell that the beef they used was of better quality. I found the quantity of the cheese to overpower the beef, though it was okay. Lastly, the garlic sauce was delicious. I walked i... read more. At Nico's Arepas Grill in Nowatney, juicy barbecue is freshly roasted on an open flame and garnished with fine sides.
