The pizza Chicago is close to me and my heart is very close. I've been eating here for years and since I moved away, there's been nowhere else. It seems expensive, but the price reflects the food quality. It is really a family-run pizza place and they are happy to accommodate special requests. You really seem to want to please customers and the service speaks to them. The food is indisputably delicious. Who would sus... read more. What

User doesn't like about Pizz'a Chicago (santa Clara):

Seriously? This is the largest pizza they have, worth $37 and it doesn't even feed me?? I have no way of knowing if they made a mistake or if this is the real pizza size, but from Small/Medium/Large, I picked Large and paid $37... and ate it in one meal, instead of 2 as I was hoping for... Definitely will not order there again at this price point! read more. At Pizz'a Chicago (santa Clara) in Santa Clara you can taste delicious vegetarian dishes, that are free from any animal meat or fish, Also, you shouldn't miss out on the crispy and crunchy pizza, original freshly baked in a wood oven.
