This is my favorite place to eat- and has been since Connor was 2, eight years ago. Their food is consistently delicious. The free chips and pico you get served upon arrival are better than all the places around here, and you usually pay for chips and salsa so it's a serious win for them. I generally get (and adore) the regular steak burrito, but also love their chicken fajitas. Please try the El Sarape margarita. It... read more. What User doesn't like about El Sarape:

Waiters and waitresses were not freindly food was overcooked and not much flavor staff must not know English as they never said a word to us only one of the staff spoke to us and she was the only one that said anything the rest just showed up and dropped stuff off and didn't even say hello back to us read more. At El Sarape in Green Bay, a diverse brunch is served for breakfast, where you can eat as much as you want enjoy thoroughly, There's something for all tastes and it's impossible to go wrong with the bite-sized Tapas.
