If you want some really good quality Chinese food, I recommend this yoshinoya place. They are not stingy with their condiments and there is plenty of seating available. If you would like to use the bathroom you need to ask them for a token. I have been to this establishment so many times I lost count I highly recommend it and the people that work for them are decent and nice and act like they love their job. read more. What User doesn't like about Yoshinoya Vermont Rosecrans:

I received the poorest service at this place, and they made my order three times wrong. the same order! I went to the restaurant to fix it twice, just to find another customer who complained about their order. when I called and asked to speak to the manager, the person who answered was hanging up on me. when I finally got through, I received no apology; only one please come back to the load. the worse experience. avo...
