A cafe with a converted warehouse-type feel. There's enough open doorways that it seems as if you are outdoors when you are indoors. As the name implies, there's a loft that looks over the first floor, though the regulars are eager to take the seats up there. The staff are friendly, and if you're into unusual syrups, they have things like rose and cardamom. Parking: The Loft is adjacent to one of the Cabrillo College... read more. As a guest, you can use the WLAN of the establishment free of charge, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Jennifer Garcia doesn't like about Loft Coffee:

My mocha was barely warm, $4 6oz in an 8oz cup. Looked tiny, felt bad taking it from it's mother. A little confused with the food. Hubby got an egg, cheese and sausage croissant... it was a Jimmy Dean. We don't even buy those for home. But he went back inside and they were making a non packaged croissant sandwich. My bagel was fine. The atmosphere is nice. Our service was without emotion. read more. At Loft Coffee in Aptos, a diverse brunch is served in the morning, where you can have your fill pamper your taste buds, Also, the customers of the establishment love the large selection of differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. You can just get one of the delicious sandwiches, a small salad or another snack, if you're not that hungry.
