What User likes about Los Dubon: everything we had here: the fruit salad drink, the pupusas, who desserts and more (some names I don't remember) was delicious. the service was somewhat slow, but it was good as they prepared the pupusa fresh. read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, and there is free WiFi. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Los Dubon:

After we had the meal, we went to the desk for the bill. I was a little surprised that it was higher than expected, but they said I would see the bill details once I paid it(they had no service, didn't provide the bill to our table). On the iPad screen, they ask for tips option, I chose one. Then the bill printed. They charged 10% service fee without mentioning it to us at all. I asked them why there's a 10% service...
