I've never eaten Albanian cuisine before, so my curiosity to try it intensified on the day of my visit to Alba. The menu is predominantly written in their native language, but the waiter gave me a very clear translation. He was warm, friendly, and very helpful in assisting me with my food order. I had a Beef Kabob over rice with a side salad and an imported Albanian peach soda. Everything was as delicious as I was ho... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Alba:

I called them for delivery, they don't deliver, the girl who took the order had an attitude, she said they updated their menu and it's not online. I got pick up the food and the food didn't come with no spoons forks napkins. I called them back they said O WELL. Very poor experience! read more. At Alba, you'll find authentic, classic Kebabs in diverse variations as well as the spices and spice mixes, known for the delicious Turkish cuisine - whether on a Lahmacun, in a Sucuk, or in one of the delicious salads with chickpeas or lentils, In addition, the delectable desserts of the local shine not only in the eyes of the little guests. There are also light Mediterranean meals available.
