Good teppanyaki which is a family fave. Food was good (you don't go to teppanyaki for the food, you go for the show! . The filet was quite delicious and my favorite side was the noodles which I've never had at a teppenyaki restaurant before. Definitely go if you have kids that want to get off their phone for a bit and eat some good food!

Hostess was just not friendly and treated us like the restaurant was sold out for years. We were doing a business meal and were waiting for our guests who were tied up with another meeting and threatened to take our table away and wouldn't even seat us until the balance of our party arrived. We were in total, 5 minutes late. Not our plan but this created an uncomfortable situation and we had to pressure a business gu... read more.
