Every time we come here, the owner is super friendly and accommodating. Even though it's in a market style location, he will seek you out to see if there's anything you liked or didn't like about the service and food. The price, quality and quantity of food is comparable to the area. I'd highly recommend the lamb or the felaful. Oh, he will insist you try the garlic sauce too haha. The chickpea/jalapeño side hits the... read more. What User doesn't like about Mo'rockin Fusion:

Both of staff working on Thursday, August 31st were very frustrated and annoyed with customers. We were excited to eat at your establishment due to high recommendations from other visitors to the area. The food was delicious but the staff were rude to us and several other customers before and after us. After we finished our meal, we tried to get the bathroom code (which is to be provided by the establishment you purc... read more.
