What User doesn't like about The Urban Corner:

the available food was decent. the staff was friendly and helpful. the online order is a problem. they have an online system that order, bill the credit card, and sends emails. the workers say the system does not work and they cannot see it. I have tried to call without success to repay this. at the order in person was a good drop of the menu from store by 18 o'clock. it's okay if they are close to and in person, but... read more.
