one of my favorite restaurants. it is higher price, but eating is definitely worth it. they have a lot of options and everything is fantastic. the portions are huge, so there are always many rest to take home. by far the best Japanese eat here. the service is also great! read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Shogun Japanese Steak Sushi:

Dine in (Non-Hibachi) is no longer offered for dinner. Which means you cannot get any of their specialty sushi rolls for dine in at dinner. I used to really enjoy the VIP role served on fire. If you choose to go for dinner you must sit at the hibachi grill and I was told you must order hibachi food there (you can't order just a sushi roll). Sushi is no good for take out. I think sushi should be removed from their men... read more.
