the service was great! we came while they were from a To-Go window (during renovations.) good breakfast and fast! my man had the hot honey biscuit and it was great! read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather. What User doesn't like about The Cafe On 80 Deli Bakery: in the south, I really thought they knew what were cookies and gravy, but what they served with something else. the cookies were big, it looked really nice, but had a very strange back taste. the spicy value had a kind of green in it and it was excessively spicy and garlicky. they have to go back to the signboard and see what southern cookies and gravy really are. such a simple and good concept has totally failed.
