What User likes about China Yummy: eating is good, but not sure whoever calls to answer is burned out for ordering. they never answer phone like a "business greeting" . it is always as if it were their normal home phone. read more. As a guest, you can use the WiFi of the establishment at no extra cost, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What David B doesn't like about China Yummy: Only take-out orders are offered, despite having a dining area and all the furnishings. Sanitation grade is pretty good at a 97%. Waiting for my food is a little painful; an employee's child, severely ADD, kept running around screaming and yelling in Chinese during my entire wait. I got kung po chicken, which was incredibly salty. Perhaps the child poked the cook while adding spices. I'll have to be pretty desperate... read more.
