What User likes about Metropolitan:

We showed up without reservations and could easily get a place at the bar. The bartender was attentive and the food was excellent, filled with mushroom from the runs like the short rib. You have cool drinks specialties. I had a whisky sour that came with avocado and chips for $8. Next time in Beaver Creek will be sure to make it back.

Good ambiance and friendly service. Food was good but even by Beaver Creek standards, it's pricey. $18 for two tiny tacos (see pic and some potato chips. Much quieter here than upstairs at the Dusty Boot, but a lack of customers tells another story. (note: Google maps currently shows separate listings/locations for The Met Kitchen and the Metropolitan but it's the same place, on the mid level and below the Dusty Boot... read more. If you feel like snacks, you should visit Metropolitan because they have enchanting desserts that will surely satisfy the sweet-tooth in you, In addition, the drinks menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive.
