What User likes about Viet Taste: I tried some Vietnamese restaurants here in Knoxville, and that's what I like most so far. I ordered the garnelen eierrolles and rinderpho and my friend ordered grilled bánh mì. We liked and enjoyed our food, especially this was our first time there. ? read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Viet Taste: for the first time visit. First off, minus 2 stars for the sauce bottle on the table. At least try to present her restaurant as if she is proud of her decor. I ordered the grilled pork vermicelli and a koks null. There was nothing grilled about the black. I would even say that it could have been heated in the microwave, it had this texture. Mostly fat pieces with little meat. Noodles and vegetables were best ok. Drink ta... read more. Freshly harvested mint, tasty salad, sprouts and a few drops of lime combined with rice noodles and meat - all of this can be found not only during your vacation in Vietnam on the menu, but also when visiting the local Viet Taste in Knoxville, and you can look forward to the fine classic seafood cuisine. The meals are prepared according to authentic Asian style. The creative fusion of different meals with fresh and occasionally daring ingredients is highly valued by the customers - a good example of Asian Fusion.
