What User likes about Kobams Grill: I have lived in the region central Texas for over 20 years and have still to see that every African restaurant cooking egusi and okra suppe as well as kobams. they know how to cook the dishes and I recommend this restaurant to anyone who wants a real African dish. I visited the restaurant about a week ago when I was in town. this time I experienced something I had never experienced when I was asked to pay for my meal... read more.

The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about Kobams Grill:

This is not a recent purchase. I was scrolling through my photos and saw this picture. I remember dining at Kobams when it first opened, and I absolutely loved the food. A few months ago, I placed an order but I didn't check my food until I made it home. I was highly upset about this egusi. Based on this, I decided to never eat at or order from Kobam's again.
