What User doesn't like about Commons Club:

This place just didn't impress me as I was expecting. The food was ok, cocktails were better but nothing impressive, and the music was too loud for a restaurant. They should just label it a club. It was a little warm in our area so that was uncomfortable for a hot summer night in Dallas. There was a fly around the table which was also uncommon for a nice restaurant and uncomfortable. read more. Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and varied assortment of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try.
