The Taproom is a must visit for any beer lovers in downtown Aiken. Always love the variety of beers available!!

More Edmunds Oast please!! They also have ciders, wine, and soft drinks. Check it out, you won't be disappointed! Congratulations on 6 great beer filled years!! read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in nice weather, and there is complimentary WLAN. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Isai Moen doesn't like about Alley Downtown Taproom:

After a somewhat disappointed beer at a local rival Brew pub in Aiken, I was looking forward to trying a beer from the many on tap. Only one staff member was working. I asked for a NE IPA or West Coast IPA. The staff member directed me to one and I had a small taster. It was ok so purchased ONE beer. Allegedly 16.7 fluid oz. The bill turned out at over 11 US dollars.... For one beer! That's more than NYC or London. It... read more. If you're craving some spicy South American cuisine, you've come to the right place: exquisite dishes, roasted with fish, seafood, and meat, though corn, beans, and potatoes are also in the menu, and you have the opportunity to try tasty American dishes like Burger or Barbecue. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), also relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink. Likewise, the customers of the restaurant prefer the large selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant provides.
