wife and I took the big kids there. it was the only place where I could agree with all three. I admit that I also enjoyed eating. I always get breakfast when I go. it's nice for a change. they were short personal, as all seem to be, but the waitress did their best to treat everyone. that was not bad, eating was good and had a few children talking so it was a great night. I have to atleast put 1 star, but if i could it would be negative stars. everytime we've went, we NEVER get seated. we got there 45 minutes before closing time, and we were told we could not be seated. however, there was a group walk in right before us who argued and got seated anyway.
