What User likes about Nick's Drive-in:

eating here is foolishly good. it is clear that years of experience have taught these cooks how to pack in taste. try the Greek bun and kartoffel. the rich lemon flavor and the crispy skin are incomparable. it is great to see a family-run business. prices are so low; skip their usual fast food stop and come here instead for an affordable, tasty meal! If the weather are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What User doesn't like about Nick's Drive-in:

I have my last bad meal with twin. they never get the order right. I don't know if it's just the young people who take the order, or the management just doesn't care. they always get it wrong when I eat, but I'm here and can correct it. but today was the last chance. the quality of eating went down. the price went up and the order was wrong again. too many others I like to write these from the list.
