service is great, we love the small town diner vibe this place has. eating was very good, but the service was great. I hope they never try to change this place. some places should always remain the same. read more. What User doesn't like about Country Inn:

my experience here was absolutely terrible, we waited an hour for her food, when it wasn't even that we literally saw that 5 tables are served after we were there and from the time we started to eat it was ridiculous! and apparently our mission was messed up and instead of communicating that we were having an hour on the table waiting and accepting our coffee before we had worked out. I had to cancel my nail date bec... read more.
