Our go-to place for great beer and sandwiches. Monday the pints are $4.50 all day. They have the chuck-a-nut pilsner, 'Sellwood Pilsner' on tap which is probably the best pilsner you'll ever have. There are quite a few tables, in the front, back beer garden, and large side room and often only two servers so it gets dicey when large parties come in but service is always friendly. The beer is great and the tots are good, but the majority of the waitresses were snotty and disrespectful. They acted annoyed by our presence, wouldn't directly answer questions, and instead were passive-aggressive. One waitress was very friendly and we really liked her. Combine that with the good beer, and I give it two stars. read more.
