Hidden gem on the south side of Indianapolis. Antique interior without it being hipster or kitschy. They've got beer and burgers, and they are open late. Seriously check this place out! Also, unless you've got a party of 6+ you're going to want the half size of the chips appetizer, and get the sweet potatoes fries Also, the wings appetizer is and can be an entire meal. Tenderloin was good. Not a fan of the nachos as you can see no fresh vegetables on top just melted cheese could have made better at home for the . Service was great! For the atmosphere I do like the antique decorations however not a fan of the 5 inches of dust on them. Due to so many items with many dangling above your food and table the owner should be dedicating someone to clean them. The airplane above the bar se... read more.
