My wife, daughter and I came here on the day of the Roanoke fireworks. It was a hot and muggy day just making it hot when eating. I do understand that is what they are going for but not for me. The food and service was very sub par. I mean the food wasn't bad but nothing to write home about either. I'd say try it once or twice and see if its for you. We came here a few years back and it was good but as I said see fo... read more.
