SO and I ran the Rock and Roll marathon and were HUNGRY. This was the first place that Google suggested to her as she typed in tacos in her search bar. The gods were obviously watching and felt a bit benevolent for this place hit the spot. Got the street tacos (Campechanos) and they were delicious!!!! Meat was cooked to perfection, crispy ends but still juicy, tortillas were sauteed in oil, cilantro and onions fresh... read more. What

Ipseity doesn't like about Taqueria El Trompo:

The pastor here has an overly round, undifferentiated profile with no discernible fruitiness, lacking the strong flavor dynamics and brightness usually associated with pastor. With zero pineapple flavor, they're almost indistinguishable from the other proteins. Rather disappointed. The tortillas here, however, are excellent; very tender, good flavor. We were overcharged—ordered a (takeout) total of 14 tacos but only... read more.
