. now, under new management with amazing food and drink. .so glad to see this big change. eating is so good now. the drinks are tasty not watery as last owner. many new ways to choose. $prices are the same, even with the cost of living. the personal is really nice. all make sure you visit is a good one. eat them inside or on the terrace. call them in orderings welcome made to order' all the photos are truly what it looks like. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat outside, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about El Cazador:

My family and I have been going here once a week for the past 3 years, The service has gone down hill very fast. The food took over a hour to come out, The steak was so tough it should have been called beef jerky. We advised the manger what was going on and he said he would take care of it and make it right, we got to check out they charged us for food we didn't even get, how is that making it right? This use to be a very... read more.

Anticipate the varied, tasty Mexican cuisine, which is usually prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), Furthermore, the drinks list in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and extensive selection of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try. If you'd like something dessert for dessert, El Cazador does not disappoint with its large selection of desserts, At the bar, you can relax with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
