I am officially a McMenamins sign that I had so much fun for my birthday at Anderson School that I had to watch the Mill Creek Pub on my way home from work. It is a small bastion of the McMenamins empire with more beers than I can drink safely in a session, as well as a very friendly waiting staff. I can stay home here on the way from work soon read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about Mcmenamins Mill Creek:

I'm torn writing this review, but feel that management needs to know this in order to improve. This has been our go to place for years. Actually going to the restaurant has always been great! My problem is when you order things to go from a food delivery service. Almost every order, and we have ordered there numerous times, has been missing items. I have had to report almost every order for a refund because something... read more.
