The grits are local, creamy, and thick, and the bacon is crispy, just the way most southerners like it. The homemade waffle is heated up in a toaster or microwave. Customer service is a hit or miss. It's been quite a few times that I've been here that a couple of the employees have grimacing look on their face, far different than their sister cafe upstairs. Even something as simple as saying, you're welcome is very... read more.
