First time trying this restaurant as my daughter and family raved about it. The food was good, service was okay, our waitress wasn't as attentive to us as she was with other patrons. The only thing I disliked was eating out of a bag! This restaurant won't be on the top of my go to places for Cajun seafood, however if someone asks I'll let them know that they at least need to try it to make up their own mind about the...
