A hidden gem in 626. I usually don't know a lot of foodie spots in this area because I don't live near. Was recommended to me by a friend and this place did not disappoint. We got the com tam bi cha thit nuong, which is a broken rice plate with shredded pork, egg meatloaf, and grilled pork. We also added some eggrolls and the wrap they use is better than the traditional wrap in my opinion. read more. My husband and I just had dinner in this restaurant tonight. It's our first time visiting here. We ordered 2 pho noodles ($11.99 each) and 5 egg rolls ($10.5) and 1 chicken leg ($4.99). They end up charged us $50.69 as total, and we also gave them extra tips. Because they were closing at the time we paid, so we didn't look into detail of our receipt, just paid and left. When we got home we calculated what we ordered, th... read more. Fresh mint, fine salad, sprouts and a splash of lime combined with rice noodles and meat - all of this can be found not only during your vacation in Vietnam on the plate, but also when visiting the nearby Com Tam Thuan Kieu in San Gabriel. Also, the visitors of the establishment love the comprehensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer. The menus are prepared according to authentic Asian style, Furthermore, the visitors love the inventive combination of different dishes with new and partially experimental ingredients - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion.
