Service is really good, and the staff is really nice! Thai tea is really good, and the prices are also good! Orange chicken taste really good, really good portions. Would come back when you visit California City. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What Patricia Adams doesn't like about Golden Bamboo:

The food is really not what I expected. If we do the job, we've confused ourselves with the other restaurant... We ordered combination of fry rice and orange chicken and broccoli beef and it is the first time that broccoli beef served me as soup with and the meat tasted differently, more like a broccoli beef and the orange smell like fish and it doesn't smell like chicken at all... I don't know if I was unhappy enough... read more. Golden Bamboo from California City uses for its delightful meals the Thai culinary popular spices and (fish-)sauces, along comes fresh vegetables, seafood and meat, The inventive fusion of different dishes with fresh and occasionally daring products is highly valued by the visitors - a good example of Asian Fusion. The meals are prepared according to authentic Asian style.
