we eat regularly in this cafeteria, whether we come to the right museum or come strictly for eating. in the past was an Indian rice tasty; recently the menu was a block of boiled tofu with steamed brokkoli and flower cabbage. patrons visit various food stations, order their food and get it cafeteria style. Eating is in a huge, airy, bright courtyard. menu is a changing, seasonal format. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Provenance Cafe: it is nice to have some vegan options in the art museum. there were no hot dining options that were vegan the day we went, so we have an Asian reisnudelsalat from the tomb-n-go cooler that was decent. we rounded our meal with a vegan leaves from bakery (excellent!), cappuccino with mandelmilch (excellent!) and a fruit cup. not bad! read more. If you're desiring some zesty South American cuisine, you've come to the right place: delicious meals, roasted with fish, seafood, and meat, though corn, beans, and potatoes are also in the menu, Dishes are also prepared here, deliciously and freshly with traditional Indian spices. Furthermore, you'll find scrumptious American dishes, like for instance burgers and grilled meat on the menu, The guests of the restaurant also appreciate the comprehensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer.
