We had a wonderful experience with a baby shower at Churchville Inn, for my daughter. Planning and planning was easy. The young man who looked after us was so friendly and attentive. He was also very helpful with our decorating and serving and boxes of the cake. The food was delicious and refilled without asking. The room was beautiful and we could decorate as much as we have chosen, given a lot of time to set up bef... read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is complimentary WLAN. If the weather are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What

User doesn't like about The Churchville Inn:

The food was good. The staff was a little weird. They culminated around a curtain and watched my friend and I eat dinner. Mostly it was our waitress, but the hostess would do it. They watched me before my friend arrived.

Had a reservation for 6:45 and I came at 6:40. The waitress never refilled my water (I had beer and wasn't worried about the water) so I know it wasn't the reason. Strange. read more.
