wow! I have been hanging around mesa for almost a year, where my fiancée lives. we decided to go to dinner, but not to wait too nice or long. this place fits the bill. it was a little busy when we arrived, but the lines moved quickly. the menu is simple and I appreciate it. they don't have to be confused by a 1,000-point menu. she ordered chicken tacos and I ordered the steak gordita with chips and drill along with M...
