my favorite Chinese restaurant in nd so far. all the points that I appreciate: (1) the place is huge, (2) the floors are clean, (3) the tables are clean and the glass plate was scrubsy clean, because in the normal my table areas with serviettes and hot water purée, if I only had eaten in the fall, (4) no tepp (food with teppich foot traffic in all kinds of weathering read more. What User doesn't like about Lucy's North China Cuisine:

eating was marginal, but the service was absolutely terrible. when we were there, there were only three more tables, but the personal treated us, as if we had not even existed, as asked for water refills, boxing and our check had to go several times. then, when we finally got our neck, the prices we were calculated were more expensive than what was on the menu. when we adjusted the prices, they said they couldn't. I... read more.
