What User likes about Sports Nut: large wings and food specialists. many people think they are the best wings in the city. I don't know that (not everywhere) but they are damn good and have a lot of taste to choose. their burgers are also good. they also have special daily areas. one of them is $1 burger and another is T-bone steaks (try the hot teriyaki). very cool local bar and grill...with surprisingly good eating. read more. What User doesn't like about Sports Nut: Great food but the bartender left a lot to be desired. He was not friendly and made you feel like he didn't want to be there and didn't want you there. Go for the food but know your service will not be good. read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential.
