no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Starbucks:

I entered the building to order a simple medicine ball, but I was met with no customer service and a sense that people who were working at the time did not want to be there. I stood next to the counter waiting for my drink to be made. After reading an article on my phone, I look up to see my drink had been sitting there. I get it that it wasn't busy but usually the barista would inform the customer that their drink i... read more.
