What Tiffany W likes about Blue Ribbon Artisan Pizza: This was a surprise find...we stumbled in for lunch on a Saturday and were sold when they said they offered a GLUTEN FREE CRUST yay! It seemed more like a New York style than we normally order, but the pizza was delish and perfectly sized for lunch for two. The server asked if we wanted a butterscotch pudding for dessert...we did not know that it was their specialty, so it seemed a little random but also good, so we... read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, and there is free WLAN. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What Steve M doesn't like about Blue Ribbon Artisan Pizza: It was the most AKWARD greeting I have ever experienced at a restaurant. I went to be seated with my toddler while my wife was getting my other son (a 1 year old) out of the car. The first server walks past me a couple of times, and then a second gentleman walks up like he was going to escort me out. He was very close to my personal space, about 8 to 10 inches away from my face. I asked him if we just sat anywhere? H... read more. At Blue Ribbon Artisan Pizza in Encinitas, delicious pizza is baked oven-fresh using a traditional method. Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and varied variety of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try. In addition, you can expect original Italian cuisine with tasty classics like pizza and pasta. Moreover, the enchanting desserts of the house shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
