This is a gem in Englewood, NJ. The valet parking, greeting by the hostess, excellent explanation of the menu by the waitress and the attention to service by the general manager and even the owner made it a top notch experience. The chips and sauce let us know that the food was going to be amazing, and it did not disappoint. Portions were generous and flavorful. The rum punch has quite a punch! Overall excellent experience... read more. When the weather conditions is nice you can also be served outside, and there is complimentary WiFi. I have been here before and was very happy with the food and the experience. I have to say coming back since covid it is a disappointment. The food pricing does not equate to the food quality. I ordered the salmon which came with vegetables. The salmon was well cooked but the veggies taste as though they were steamed in a bag. Not worth the $35 price tag. My husband's meal was the same, seemed as though it was made in a... read more.
