What an amazing place to eat! We were seated very quickly, the staff was amazingly friendly and helpful. My only regret is that I had the mussels, because they raised my expectations so high, I will never be satisfied with just any dish with mussels again. My boyfriend loved the chicken and fries, and the 7 year old loved the clam chowder, and sourdough. read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What Drew Price doesn't like about Alioto's:

Ordered the steward seafood pot (I don't remember the exact dish name) with a friend. I'd say that I expected something better. It's not that it's bad or what, it's just not impressive (considering its price). And the service, when we arrived, we were led to a table which should have been well set up but was then got messed up by a random kid or else. The waiter just brought us there and we had to reorganize it by o... read more. The Alioto's from San Francisco offers various tasty seafood meals.
