It's a mess. I'd return for the experience, atmosphere, and people, but I would not return for the food, service, or cleanliness. No one wore a hairnet or washed their hands—the owner transitions from various roles in his restaurant, which I admire. However, one should not come in, see the owner eating with his bare hands, then go up to the register with those same dirty hands and serve us, handing us our cups, cards... read more.
