I eat here in the rule of me, so bbq is not really practical. but they use real charcoal in contrast to most other Korean bbq places, so they don't wear their Sunday best. my usual here is the hearty soondubu, soft tofu stone. I have ordered this court at many places, including in korea, and no one even approaches the quality of tofu village. this is my last night to live in the opposite and had to get a final taste.... read more. What User doesn't like about Tofu Village:

Terrible and poor customer service. We have a table of 9. Waitress took our orders (didn't write anything down), left then came back out and told us she forgot what we ordered. We reordered and then when the food came out my order never came. First off she didn't give me utensils, then forgot my drink, and then my whole order. I told them I want to cancel because it took too long, they still brought it out and try to... read more.
