Aaron J likes about Rice Spice:

I've been wanting to check this place out for a while. I'm glad I did, because it is amazing. North Dakota is pretty limited for Chinese food but this is definitely up there as far as quality goes. I we'll definitely be back if I'm in the area again read more. What A Riv doesn't like about Rice Spice:

The prices are really great, but the food was mediocre. Pepper chicken was oddly sweet, lo mein was mushy, and Thai tea didn't really taste like other Thai tea that I've had (honestly not much flavor at all). I would like to try some of their other dishes though. read more. For you, Rice Spice from Williston prepares scrumptious sushi (e.g., Maki and Sashimi), in many additional versions, with fresh ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian meals. It should not be forgotten that there is a comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this locale, Furthermore, the customers love the successful combination of different dishes with new and partially experimental ingredients - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion.
