I never knew this place was here until I came with a group of friends. You have several TVs, two billiard tables and I think I saw some darts on the second floor. But the workers are really friendly, the drinks are good, service is good, got a juke box, and I heard the food is really good, but have not yet tried. This is a place to get away from all the whisky series and the tourists I would say. Good job! read more.
