While I definitely wanted some fresh baked bread, I was also curious to see this structure from 1907 that first served as the Fahey Hotel before coming into the Goll family in 1930. One of the current family members explained that the window and door frames and basic structure was much the same as it was 90 years ago when the Goll Bakery started. In addition to learning more history I bought a fresh loaf of Vienna da... read more.
