family is gluten free and I went to halloween night, trevor and 2 other young people worked. trevor all did not remove GF bread from the area, cleaned the knives, extinguished the counters and got new paper to work. this is normal protocol, but to do for a restaurant it was great. we added jersey mikes to our weekly menu, now that we have this great experience. keep the great work read more. In beautiful weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Jersey Mike's:

the personal took old to make my food. two of the young on the back do not even have the trouble to come out and help the worker in the front. the food was well prepared and tasted fine, but was definitely not worth the $40 I paid for 4 sandwiches. this place could use a little work and I would recommend going anywhere else, unless they are good with waiting 20 minutes.
