My favorite sushi restaurant on Long Island. I love working here and in an Asian fusion restaurant for years, this place is on the point. I recommend the Himawai salad for appetizer if you like sashimi. They also make an excellent futomaki role. My friend is a fan of salmon teriyaki seafood udon soup. read more. What User doesn't like about Himawari Japanese:

Worst place for sushi on Earth. The evil waitress charge 20% gratuity on the check without telling me, she claims that I never tip her enough and I go there quite often, and tip double the tax. She was always at a 20% gratuity on my check and never mentioned it to me. She has a horrible attitude problem and they need to shut down this sushi place ASAP for horrible food and expensive prices read more. At Himawari Japanese from City of Long Beach you have the opportunity to savor delicious vegetarian meals, in which no trace of animal meat or fish was processed, and you can look forward to the scrumptious classic seafood cuisine. The Asian fusion cuisine is also an important part of Himawari Japanese. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known meals too ordinary can here approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients eat, among the delicacies of this restaurant are especially the Sashimi and Sashimi.
